Use of cookies

With the current page, written on virtue of Regulation 679/2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and following the simplified procedures for the notification and acquisition of consent for the use of cookies, published on Gazzetta Ufficiale issue 126 of June 3rd 2014 and foreseen by the general provision by the Italian Supervisory Authority adopted on May 8th 2014, the person in charge for the processing of personal data provides the users of the website with a detailed regulation on what cookies are and how they are used within this Website.

The users who visit this Website are going to see minimal amounts of information contained in the devices they make use of, either PCs or other peripheral devices, inserted in small text files called “cookies” saved in the directories used by the Web Browser of the User.

There are several types of cookies, some to make the usage of the Website easier, some others to install some services.

Going more in detail, our cookies enable us to remember the inserted preferences, avoid to insert the same information repeatedly, such as the username and the password, more than once during the visit, to analyze the use of services and the contents provided to optimize the session of Web Surfing and the offered services.

Here follow the different types of cookies used by www.cippitanidigioacchino.com depending on the different purposes of use.

TECHNICAL COOKIES

This kind of cookie enables the correct functioning of some sections of the Website. They belong to two categories: persistent cookies and session cookies.

Persistent cookies are not removed once the browser is shut but remain until a pre- fixed date expires.

Session cookies are instead removed any time the Browser is shut.

Therefore these Cookies, always sent from our domain, are needed in order to visualize the website correctly and relating to the offered technical services. Therefore they are always going to be used and sent, unless the users change the settings in their own browser (thus hindering the visualization of the Website).

ANALYTIC COOKIES

Cookies of this kind are used to store information on the use of the Website which is going to use them for anonymous statistical studies in order to make the use of the Website easier and to make the contents more interesting and relevant to the needs of the users. This kind of cookies anonymously stores data about the activity of users and how they got to the website. The analytic cookies are sent by the Website itself or the domains of third parties.

COOKIES for the ANALYSIS of SERVICES from THIRD PARTIES

These Cookies are used in order to store information anonymously on the use of Websites by the users such as visited pages, how long they stayed on the same page, the origins of the traffic (i.e.

from where it comes, age, sex and interests for advertising purposes). These Cookies are sent by domains of Third Parties external to the Website.

COOKIES to integrate products and software functions of third parties

This type of cookies integrates functionalities developed by third parties within the pages of the Website such as the icons and the preferences expressed in social networks in order to share the contents of the website or to use software services of third parties (such as softwares to generate the maps and further softwares providing additional services). These cookies are sent by domains of Third Parties and by partner websites offering their functionalities among the pages of the Website.

PROFILING COOKIES

These cookies are needed to create profile users in order to send ads according to the preferences shown by the user in the pages of the website.

www.cippitanidigioacchino.com does not make use of profiling cookies.

On virtue of the law in force, www.cippitanidigioacchino.com is not obliged to ask for consent for technical and analytic cookies, since these last are needed in order to provide our services.

As of any other kind of cookies the consent can be expressed by the User with one or more than one of the following ways:

- By means of specific configurations of the Browser in use or the related informatics programmes used to visit the pages of the Website.
- By changing the settings governing the use of settings by third parties.

These two solutions might both prevent the user from using or visualizing some parts of the Website.

Websites and services by third parties

The Website could also contain some links to other Websites providing their own Privacy Policy which can also differ from that one established by www.cippitanidigioacchino.com and for which the current Website is not responsible.

Here follows a list of technical and analytic cookies used by this Website:

Services for statistics

Google Analytics

The service of statistics Google Analytics used by this Website is a system able to trace the behaviour of users while they navigate on the Internet. Cookies released by this service are used to collect information on the use of the Website and also to make detailed statistical enquiries of which the website administrator can make use anonymously. Google, the owner of the service, is going to use these data in order to share them with other services provided by Google itself and to produce ads (proposed through the channels AdSense), which the users are going to like. This website does not profile first party data and does not have any agreement with Google to first party profile.

Anonymous Google Analytics

This Website uses the system of Google Analytics anonymously. Through this way of usage Google is going to register the IP address of the user in a non-extended way, thus ensuring that the user stays anonymous.

This modality is active just within EU Countries.
